Summary:

GameWize: Making Maths Fun! With Microsoft Office features fun and simple activities that will excite and entertain students in any classroom. Using Microsoft Excel and PowerPoint, Making Maths Fun! teaches students that not all learning has to come straight from textbooks, and shows teachers that new technologies, such as interactive whiteboards and projectors, are changing the way children are taught.

With these fun competitive games, students will master skills in order to surge ahead of their competition. The easily customisable game templates included in the accompanying downloadable resources will have teachers understanding, using and enjoying Making Maths Fun! almost as much as their students.

Take advantage of the activities in GameWize: Making Maths Fun! with Microsoft Office, and get your students to enjoy mathematics for the rest of their academic careers.
